St David's Wettenhall & St Oswald's Worleston September 2019

The Cross Country Parishes of Acton, Church Minshull, Wettenhall & Worleston.

Do you remember your first day at school?

I do. We were late, of course. My mother was always late, and when we got there the place was empty except for a caretaker who said that they'd all gone to church. It was the first day of term after Easter and that was the tradition. We hurtled along the road as fast as we could with me hanging on to my brother's pram handle. When we got there I was delivered to a teacher, whom I had not met before, who put me in a pew with a bunch of strangers and so my school days had begun.

The building and what was going on there was all new to me. I never discovered why I was sent to a C of E school as my parents, being Scottish non-conformists, were suspicious of the established church and had taken us back to Scotland to be baptised 'properly' as grandmother said, in the Church of Scotland; and on Sundays we were sent to the Baptist Sunday School. At my C of E school there were daily prayers and a Bible story to begin the day, but the routine was just the same when we moved to another part of the country and attended a state school.

I suspect that the start of their school life for the children who begin at St Oswald's nowadays will be very different from mine. For most of them at the beginning of the new term this month, it will not be their first day in the building or their first experience of looking round the classrooms and playground and meeting the teachers and staff. Many will have been attending the nursery and will have made friends and will feel at home. I wonder, if, when they are as old as me they will be able to identify their first day at school?

Things change! However, some things continue as before. The children at our church school, St Oswald's do have a daily Collective Act of Worship (I expect you knew it as 'Assembly'), where they hear Bible stories, learn and say prayers and begin to learn about the Christian faith. The church building is not a forbidding place as they come for visits, end of term services and on other occasions like Mothering Sunday or Christmas Eve when they bring other members of the family too.

The congregation at St Oswald's regularly prays for the school, the children, staff and parents. Perhaps you can join us in praying that all the children, especially those whose first term it is, will grow to be healthy, happy and the best they can be, surrounded by our love and God's love too.

Our Thoughts And Prayers go to the residents and staff of Beechmere in Crewe following the devastating fire. Fortunately everyone was safely evacuated.

From the Registers

Burial
On Thursday August 8th 2019, Joan Grocott, funeral followed by burial in the churchyard. Our prayers and love go to all her family.

Thanks

Our thanks are due to JILL ALEXANDER who made us a lovely cake with which to celebrate St Oswald's Day, on August 4th. Our visitors from the other parishes were impressed!

Thanks too to JOSIE, CLAIRE and KATE who decorated the church so beautifully for Joan Grocott' s funeral. The flowers were magnificent. We also would like to thank them for the cleaning they did beforehand, as we do appreciate it.

Joan Grocott

Joan's family and many friends were shocked and very sad after her death on July 22nd following a short illness. Joan did so many things in the community and church that she truly will 'be greatly missed'. She was on the Fete Committee, and was the PCC Secretary at the time of her death. We all owe her a great debt of gratitude for all that she did for us, and we know that she had a wide circle of friends who will feel her loss,

A very large congregation filled the church to over-flowing for her funeral on August 8th. The church looked at its best and was full of beautiful white flowers - her favourites.

We think that she would have approved. We send her family assurances that they are in our thoughts and prayers.

Courage to Change

This is the title of a little book published by Al-Anon, and to quote from the preface , 'Al-Anon has but one purpose: to help the families and friends of alcoholics.'
Help comes through meetings of people who are all affected in some way by alcohol abuse. There are no subs; you can remain anonymous; and you do not have to speak at the meeting. If you do speak then only Christian names are used, and what you say is confidential within the group.
You do not have to attend every week but just when you feel the need.
Every meeting ends with the Serenity Prayer: God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can,and the wisdom to know the difference.
There are meetings in Sandbach during the day and evening meetings at Middlewich and Alsager.
If you think that Al-Anon might help you then ask the vicar who will pass on details of where we meet and any other information you may need.
